

Proclamation

City of Longview, Washington

Honorary Citizen

Cody Wells Day ~ May 28, 2015

WHEREAS, Cody Wells is a 1995 graduate of Mark Morris and a long-time citizen who has become a welcome fixture at City Hall Meetings. He is always friendly and supportive of City Council and Staff; and,

WHEREAS, Cody Wells has always approached the Chamber's podium with respect where he has addressed such topics as advocating the city transit tax increase, upholding the Council's invocation, and demonstrating patriotic admiration for God, community, country, its troops, and the Pledge of Allegiance to the American flag; and,

WHEREAS, Cody Wells has been an active member of our community by volunteering at Barnes Elementary School, presiding over members of the local People First chapter, enthusiastically promoting Rely Local and participating in Special Olympics where he won numerous medals; and,

WHEREAS, We congratulate Cody on his recent engagement and upcoming move to Lewis County; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Don Jensen, Mayor of the City of Longview, do hereby proclaim Cody Wells as an Honorary Citizen of Longview and declare Thursday, May 28, 2015 as Cody Wells Day in the City of Longview. Furthermore, I urge all Longview citizens to recognize his achievements of making our community a better place to live. We wish him well in his exciting future endeavors. He will be greatly missed.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Longview to be affixed in May 28, 2015.

Don Jensen, Mayor
