

2017 Rotating Art Exhibit

Cetus – Guardian of the Seas

Brian Berman

Cetus – side 2

Cetus – Guardian of the Seas

- Brian Berman, Ojai CA
- Granite, 43” x 58” x 58”, 1800#
- Cetus is the guardian of the seas. I carved this from a discarded grave stone in Berlin, Germany, and completed it in my studio in Poulsbo WA. Longview would be its perfect home.
- $15,000

Peace Totem

Jesse Swickard

Peace Totem

- Jesse Swickard, Sherwood OR
- Stainless steel and weathered steel
- 16' x 7' x 4';
- $22,000

Vertebra: Ocean Verde

Dave Haslett

Vertebra: Ocean Verde

- Dave Haslett, Lake Oswego OR
- NW Olivine & Basalt
- 80" x 20" x 20"; 1050#
- The Vertebra Series represents an interlocking strength and beauty influenced by dinosaur and whale bone.
- $15,000

Sprout

Bill Wentworth

Sprout

- Bill Wentworth, Poulsbo WA
- Stainless steel and bronze
- 7' x 3' x 3'; 100 #
- “In a world where science and technology are making ever increasing advances, natural resources also evolve. This piece represents what might happen when minerals and metallic ore from within the earth start to grow in their own natural form.”
- $5,800

Jim Johnson Remembrance

Remembrance

- Jim Johnson, Salem
- Cast bronze
- 6' x 2' x 2'
- A fire fighter exhausted and resting. Son Christian was the model while serving in the Army in Iraq.
- $5,000

Summertime Mark Andrew

Summertime

- Mark Andrew, Eugene OR
- Bronze and steel
- 80" x 33" x 24"; 200 #
- Celebrating Summer in the Northwest, the bronze medallions show Native plants and flowers on side one, side two features fruits and vegetables.
- $12,000

The Chase

Craig Breitbach

The Chase

Craig Breitbach

The Chase

- Craig Breitbach, Fall City WA
- Basalt
- 6'6" x 22" x 20"; 2500 #
- Two otters playfully chasing two salmon, carved on basalt column

- $12,000

Fat Tire #5

Lance Carlton

Fat Tire #5

- Lance Carlton, Lake Stevens WA
- Steel
- 69" x 75" x 24"; 300 #
- "...I have chosen reclaimed materials as my media from which I draw much of the inspiration for each piece... I create eclectic art in a contemporary style using a host of metals and natural materials."
- $6,000